

AMERICAN STUDIES

(Students must complete this form for authorization to register)

Proposal for AMST-G753 Independent Study

Students in the American Studies Program pursuing a Minor or Combined Degree may undertake an independent study in American Studies. All independent work must be done in consultation with an Indiana University American Studies faculty member, unless otherwise approved by the director of American Studies.

Name of Student: _____

Student IUID #: _____ Today's Date: _____

of Independent Credits: _____ Semester / Year AMST-G753 will be taken: _____

Rationale for Independent Work: (Describe the subject and scope of your study and explain how the field of American Studies will enhance your particular project).

Sources and Methodologies Involved: (List and explain the type and quantity of sources you will use in your project [e.g., specific primary and secondary materials] and the research tools you will use to create your study.)

Final Form of Project: (Describe how your research results will be presented [e.g., orally, as a paper, through an examination].)

_____
Signature of Student

_____
Instructor's name (print)

_____
Signature of American Studies Director

_____
Signature of Instructor

This proposal must be completed and submitted to the Director of American Studies at least one week before registration for the semester in which AMST-G753 is to be taken.