

Fall 2009 Lectures and Events

- Oct 21            Geographic Thinking: Édouard Glissant, Philosopher
Lecture by Patrice Nganang
4:00pm Woodburn 218
Sponsored by ASP and CMLT
- Oct 22            African Arts and Power
Roundtable Discussion
Ndalú Almeida Ondjaki, Femi Osofisan, Joseph Gaï Ramaka
4:00pm Ballantine 011
Sponsored by ASP, POAET and CMLT
- Oct 24            The Vanity of Power
A performance exploring the meaning of Gaï Ramaka's allegorical Two and One-Thousand Voiced Fragments about dictatorship in a fictive country
8:00pm SOFA Gallery
Sponsored by AAADS, ASP, BFC/A, CMLT, POAET, SAVAIL, SOFA, and WFIU
- Oct 28            *Cosmopolitan Disconnect: Fanon, Xenophobia, and Post-Apartheid
Political Culture*
Lecture by Harry Garuba
4:00pm Woodburn 218
Sponsored by ASP and CMLT
- Oct 30            Translation: Theory and Practice
Ilinca Zarifopol Johnston Colloquium
1:00pm CAHI House
Sponsored by the CMLT SAB
- Nov 4            Anachronism and Primitivism: Timeliness, Abstraction and the Cultural Politics of Form in Aimé Césaire and Wifredo Lam
Lecture by Natalie Melas
4:00pm Woodburn 218
Sponsored by ASP and CMLT
- Nov 11           *Lessons from Bolano-Land: The Death of the Postcolonial, The Ugly
Birth of the Transnational*
Lecture by Grant Farred
4:00pm Woodburn 218
Sponsored by ASP and CMLT
- Nov 12           Location Matters: Grounding Creolization in the Caribbean Imagination
Lecture by Michael Dash
4:30pm Location TBA
Sponsored by AMST, CLACS, and CMLT