Sample letter to parents:

Dear Parents,

In our class, students are learning how to request food items, manners at the table, eating a healthy diet, and the differences of American versus Chinese food. We are going to make a book about food items that is relevant to your child’s life. Please help your child find pictures of food or drink items your child eats/drinks. Your child may draw pictures of food he/she eats instead of using pictures. You may include 1-2 items that are not on the list but are relevant to your life.

1st day--bread, rice, noodle
2nd day--drinks
3rd day--fruit
4th day--Vegetables

After each class, we would like for your child to find pictures of the items listed on the assignment sheet. Please help your child to glue the pictures on the page. At the end of the week (on ___date), we will compile all of the pages and your child will have a book. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Chinese teacher
