Part 2: Participant's Commitment

I agree to do the following:

1. Attend all sessions of the seminar and complete all required assignments;
2. Develop three lesson plans, one each on China, Japan, and Korea;
3. Implement these lesson plans in the year following the seminar;
4. Participate in a follow-up event and submit a report on how the lessons were implemented within the specified time frame;
5. Continue integrating East Asia into my curriculum wherever possible.

I understand that I must be employed half-time or more in a K-12 public or private school to be eligible to participate in the program and to receive the stipends. I have reviewed the syllabus and participant information on the EASC Web site (<http://www.iu.edu/~easc/outreach/educators/seminar/index.shtml>) and am aware that receipt of my stipends is contingent upon successful completion of all program requirements.

Part 3: Principal's Commitment

As chief administrator of this teacher's school,

1. I have read the Participant's Commitment (Part 2 of this form) and support this teacher in this professional development endeavor;
2. I am committed to his/her teaching East Asian material in the curriculum in subsequent years;
3. I will do my best to facilitate an increase in the coverage of East Asia in my school's activities and curriculum;
4. I understand that, dependent on the teacher's successful completion of the seminar, my school will receive $300 for the purchase of teaching resources on East Asia. I understand that this money is for permanent resources and may not be spent on food, field trips, honoraria, electronic equipment, etc. and that this money cannot be used to replace any funds regularly made available to teachers.
