

“The U.S. and the EU and the Global Economic Crisis”

Lecture by Mattias Sundholm,
Deputy Spokesman for the European Commission Delegation to the United States

Thursday, October 22 2:30-3:30pm
SPEA Atrium

Mr. Mattias Sundholm is the Deputy Spokesman for the European Commission Delegation to the U.S. He is also the Deputy Head of the Delegation’s Press and Public Diplomacy Section, charged with promoting the EU’s positions and policies throughout the U.S. Prior to his current position, he was Information and Communications Coordinator in the Directorate General for Development at the European Commission Headquarters in Brussels. From 2002 to 2004, he worked as a diplomat with the Swedish Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Mr. Sundholm has worked as a consultant for French consultancy FI System, focusing on European Affairs and public relations, and for three years as a journalist for Aftonbladet, Scandinavia’s biggest daily newspaper.

For more information: Contact Brant Beyer 856-3832
eucenter@indiana.edu