Looking for CASE S&H and CASE DUS???

Central and East European Immigration and Ethnic Identity in the U.S.

SLAV-T 241  Spring 2016
MW 4:00–5:15 pm
3 credits (CASE S&H, CASE DUS)  taught by Dr. Jeff Holdeman

Examine identity and the many forms it can take:
* art
* music
* food
* language
* worldview
* social structure
* recreation
* clothing
* religion

Explore disciplines and aspects of culture:
* language maintenance and shift
* boundary construction and negotiation
* material culture
* urban fieldwork
* generation gap
* endogamy and exogamy
* acculturation, assimilation, and transculturation * history & development of ethnic communities in Indiana, the Midwest, and the rest of the U.S.

Learn about immigrants from the areas of modern-day: Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, Poland, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Hungary, Romania, Moldova, Slovenia, Croatia, Bosnia and Hercegovina, Serbia, Romania, Albania, Macedonia, Bulgaria, Greece, Kosovo, and Montenegro, as well as stateless groups like Tatars, Ashkenazi Jews, and Roma.

What does it mean to be "ethnic" in America?