

To: Graduate Students and Faculty, Philosophy
From: Leah Savion, Director of AI training
Subject: AI TRAINING 2005

Everyone in the department is welcome to any of the AI training sessions.
Attendance is mandatory for all AIs who have not previously received this training.
All new graduate students are invited to the STUDENT ORIENTATION session on Tue at 1:00 and the LUNCHEON on Friday at 12:30.

Tue, Aug 23

09:00-12:00: Leah: The Deliberate Excellent Teacher, Course Preparations
01:00-02:00: New Students Orientation, Director of Graduate Studies
02:00-05:00: Graduate Advising with the DGS (appointment necessary)

Wed, Aug 24

09:00-09:15: Karen, Linda, and Marge: office Procedures
09:15-10:00: Leah: Motivating Students
10:00-12:00: Ray Smith and Laura Plummer: Equitable and Economic Grading
01:00-02:30: Katie Kearns: Leading lively discussions
02:30-03:30: Leah: General Teaching Tips
07:00-09:00: AI workshop on Campus Climate, Frangipani Hall, Memorial Union

Thur, Aug 25

09:00-10:30: Leah: The Learner's Mind: heuristics, pet Theories.
10:30-11:15: Cameron: First Year Graduate Experience
11:15-12:00: Leah: Teaching Logic Courses
01:00-03:30: The first day of class; Understanding students, WH 120
03:40-05:00: Madeleine: Instructional Techniques and Resources, Main Library

Fri, Aug 26

09:00-12:30: Leah: Micro Teaching
12:30: Luncheon, SY 021-023, the Cogito Ergo room

About issues related to grad students see: <http://www.indiana.edu/~gpso/>
About teaching-related workshops:
http://www.indiana.edu/~teaching/phtml/cic_events/cic_events_result.phtml