Jill’s Story

Jill Behrman was an IU student and an employee of Campus Recreational Sports. In May of 2000, Jill left for a solo bike ride and never came back. Three years later it was discovered that she had been murdered. Now in its 16th year, the JB5K was created to keep the memory of Jill alive and to bring awareness to issues of violence in our community.

Proceeds benefit the Jill Behrman Emerging Leader Scholarship; assault education and self-defense programs; and Campus Recreational Sports programs for IU Bloomington students.

WHAT IS THE COLOR THE CAMPUS RUN?
The JB5K Color the Campus Run is an untimed 5K (the course is actually 2.8 miles, but who cares—it’s all about the color!) color run/walk event through the most beautiful parts of campus. The race will begin and end at the Student Recreational Sports Center (SRSC) on Law Lane where the post-race party will happen!

WHERE’S THE COLOR?
Four color stations will be located around the race route. At the color stations you will be showered with brightly colored powder turning your white shirt into a color explosion. Additional color bursts will take place at the finish line party zone where there will be a deejay, dance party, food, and other cool stuff! The color comes from eco-friendly colored cornstarch with food grade coloring.

HOW DOES IT WORK?
All pre-registered participants will receive a white, long sleeve JB5K Color the Campus t-shirt and sunglasses for race day. No matter what, wear white clothes if you really want your colors to show, but don’t wear anything that you really care about—including your shoes. Most of the powder will come out, but there may be some residue. More information will be sent to you closer to race day.

COSTUME CONTEST
Get creative with your JB5K Color the Campus race day outfit and you could win a Recreational Sports Prize Pack!

QUESTIONS?
Email JB5K@indiana.edu if you have additional questions or if you would like a member of the JB5K student committee to come and talk to your group about forming a team.

Waiver: I understand cross-country running or walking activities present inherent risks, including but not limited to exposure to adverse weather conditions, contact with other participants, sprains, broken bones, cuts, and bruises. I also understand that the JB5K event will be a color run event, which is a potentially hazardous activity where powdered color will be thrown at and around me during the course of the event. The powder is made up of cornstarch, food grade food coloring and a fragrance with unknown components. I understand that runners will be given sunglasses to wear, but that there is a chance of getting the powder in their eyes, mouth, hair etc. and that I might have an allergic reaction to the product.

I understand that IU has no obligation to make such special arrangements. I understand that my child/ren must be at least 14 years of age on race day to participate in this Event. I understand and agree that no special arrangements have been made for the participation of children who may walk or run the Event with their parent(s) and that IU has no obligation to make such special arrangements. I understand that my child/ren will be exposed to the risks identified above if I allow my child/ren to participate. I fully understand the risks and the scope of the activities involved in this event, and I agree to assume the risks of my participation and/or my child/ren’s participation in the event, including the risk of catastrophic injury or death. I hereby release and fully discharge IU, its trustees, officers, employees and agents, and all event sponsors, workers, officials, and volunteers from all liability in connection with my participation and/or my child/ren’s participation in this event, for or on account of any injury to or illness of my person or death, or for or on account of any loss or damage to any personal property or effects owned by me and/or my child/ren. I agree to abide by all rules of participation.

I understand that Indiana University does not require a medical exam or screening prior to my participation in this event and that it is my responsibility, not the University’s, to ascertain whether I am sufficiently physically fit to participate.
